WEBSITE ACCESSIBILITY STATEMENT

Accessibility statement for www.ecclesfield-pc.gov.uk

Introduction

This website is run by Ecclesfield Parish Council. We want as many people as possible to be able to use this website.

The website uses valid HTML so users, agents, including assistive technologies, can accurately interpret and parse content.

We have also made the website text as simple as possible to understand.

This website is provided by Netwise UK. Netwise UK takes no responsibility for the content of the website. The content is provided by Ecclesfield Parish Council. The Council make every effort to ensure the content is accessible by as many of our users as possible but this may vary depending on the experience of users to upload information. We include tips on best practice for accessibility in the training that is provided to volunteers.

How accessible this website is:

The majority of important information is written as text or provided as a PDF document. This should be accessible by a screen reader such as Adobe Reader.

We understand that, on occasions, some parts of this website may not be fully accessible. It is possible that on occasions some information may not have subtitles and some photographs might not have an informative label.

The critical content, however, will usually be provided in the form of text which will reflow in a single column when you change the size of your browser.

What to do if you cannot access parts of this website:

If you need information on this website in a different format like accessible PDF, large print, easy read or audio recording then please contact the admin team by email admin@ecclesfield-pc.gov.uk or telephone 01142845095 during office hours, 9am – 12 noon Monday to Friday.

Enforcement Procedure

The Equality and Human Rights Commission (EHRC) is responsible for enforcing the Public Sector Bodies (Websites and Mobile Applications) (No2) Accessibility Regulations 2018. (the 'accessibility regulations') If you are not happy with how we respond to your complaint please contact the Equality Advisory and Support Service (EASS) on 0808 800 0082 Monday to Friday between 9.00am – 7.00pm.

Technical information about this website's accessibility

Ecclesfield Parish Council are committed to making their website accessible, in accordance with the Public Sector Bodies (Website and Mobile Applications) (No 2) Accessibility Regulations 2018.

The critical content of the website is compliant but some content may occasionally be partially compliant with the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines version 2.1 AA standard because content is provided by unregulated and non-professional volunteers. All administrators, however, make every effort to ensure content is as accessible as possible and accessibility is included in training for administrators.
