

Are you unemployed or know someone who is and would like to:

- Gain FREE experience visiting a workplace?
- Get an insight into different job roles?
- Get valuable advice from local employers?

If the answer is yes, then on a first come, first served basis and for a limited period only...

Activity Sheffield from Sheffield City Council, have teamed up with local businesses and organisations to offer an innovative way of gaining work experience, called Walking for Purpose. We will be meeting at a local venue and walking to take a look inside different workplaces, there you will be able to:

- Gain valuable insight into the types of roles held within different businesses and organisations, with hints and tips from a local employer
- Learn about any training, job and volunteering opportunities available
- Have some fun and meet people you might have something in common with!
- If you use local public transport to get to the event, bring your ticket and details and we will reimburse you at a later date
- Please be aware we may ask to see proof of unemployment
- Chances to win prizes and freebies along the way!

You will receive a certificate of attendance for your involvement
