Councillors are deemed present for the purposes of any remote meeting, when they can speak, hear, and be heard (and where practicable see and be seen) by all those in attendance (whether by video conferencing or by telephone).

Where the Council has taken reasonable measures to provide guidance and support to a Councillor to join a remote meeting, but that member is experiencing difficulties that are outside of the control of the Council, the lack of attendance of the member shall not invalidate a properly convened and quorate meeting

All Councillors present will be required to state their name prior to the commencement of the meeting.

QUORUM:

No business may be transacted at a meeting unless at least one-third of the whole number of members of the Council are present and in no case shall the quorum of a meeting be less than three.

The quorum for Ecclesfield Parish Council meetings is five. The quorum for Committee meetings is three.

If a meeting is or becomes inquorate no business shall be transacted and the meeting shall be closed. The business on the agenda for the meeting shall be adjourned to another meeting.

VOTING:

Subject to a meeting being quorate, all questions at a meeting shall be decided by a majority of the Councillors and non-Councillors with voting rights present and voting.

The Chairman of a meeting may give an original vote on any matter put to the vote, and in the case of an equality of votes may exercise his casting vote whether or not he gave an original vote.

At the request of a Councillor, the voting on any question shall be recorded to show whether each Councillor present and voting gave his vote for or against that question. Such a request shall be made before moving on to the next item of business on the agenda.

Voting to be by show of hands in video conference. For any telephone votes the following procedure will be followed:

- The Chairman will request a response to each proposal verbally, from each member present.
- The Chairman will confirm that response verbally.
- The Chairman will read out all votes cast once collected.
- The minutes will reflect the decision of the Council.

On each item of business to be transacted, which requires discussion members will be asked to use the 'raise hand' button if they wish to speak during the meeting, if joining by video link (all microphones should be muted unless speaking) and wait to be invited to speak by the Chairman.

Where members are joining the meeting by telephone:

- The Chairman will ask each member, in turn, whether he/she wishes to contribute to the discussion.
- After each member has been heard, the Chairman will call for a proposal on the item of business to be transacted, by a member present (member to state their name prior to making the proposal)
- Once a proposal is moved, if required, the Chairman will call for that proposal to be seconded by a member present (member to state their name prior to speaking)

Any member who declares an interest in an item on the agenda must leave the meeting for the duration of that item of business in accordance with Standing Order 13b. The member will be moved to the 'waiting room' by the host in zoom whilst the item is discussed and then re-admitted after the item has been discussed.

The Chairman will ask each member of the public, joining the meeting by telephone, if they wish to contribute to this session.

Members of the public joining the meeting by video link shall raise their hand to speak – the Clerk will make a note of these and they will be invited to speak by the Chairman.

EXCLUSION OF THE PRESS AND PUBLIC

All meetings of the Council and its Committees must be available for the press and public to attend (i.e. open to the public).

The Council or a Committee may resolve to exclude the press and public, from a meeting (whether during the whole or part of the proceedings), due to publicity of the matter being prejudicial to the public interest, by reason of the confidential nature of the business to be transacted or for other special reasons.
