Word Wheel

Read: Going there by Jack Gilbert

Of course it was a disaster.
That unbearable, dearest secret
has always been a disaster.
The danger when we try to leave.
Going over and over afterward
what we should have done
instead of what we did.
But for those short times
we seemed to be alive. Misled, misused, lied to and cheated, certainly. Still, for that little while, we visited our possible life.

Caption competition

Come up with a caption for the following image, the funnier the better!

Backwards throw

What you need:

Some socks rolled up into a ball

Some kind of container- an empty waste bin or laundry bin will do

What to do:

1. Choose a space clear of anything that is going to get knocked over
2. Place your container at least 2 metres away
3. Turn your back to the container
4. Try to throw the socks into the container whilst your back is turned
5. How many did you get to go into container?
6. Can you try again and beat your score?

Make a pinwheel

You will need:

Paper

Scissors

Glue stick

Tape

Needle nose pliers

Ball pins or map pins

Seed beads

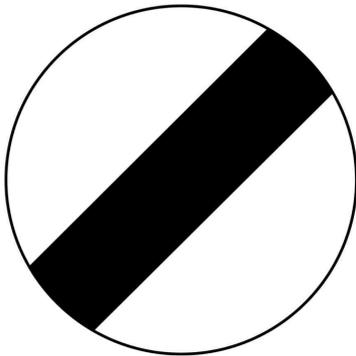

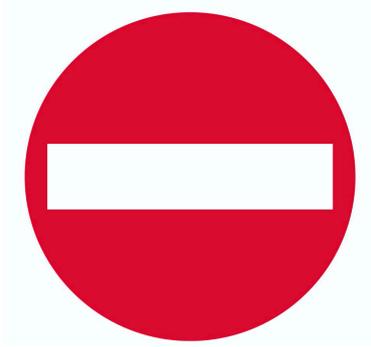

Ruler

Pencils, unsharpened with an eraser on the end OR cookie or cake pop sticks

What to do:

1. Choose a selection of coloured or patterned paper.
2. Cut out two equal sized squares of paper and glue them together with the pattern or colour side facing out. The bigger the square, the bigger the pinwheel.
3. Fold the square in half diagonally so the two tips meet. Unfold and do the same thing to the other half. Unfold again.
4. Cut along the creases from the corner to about $\frac{3}{4}$ of the way into the centre of the square.
5. Gently fold in every other point to the middle of the square and pin through the centre.
6. Slide a seed bead on the pin at the back of the pinwheel and push into the stick. TIP: Use a push pin to make a hole in the sticks, or use the soft eraser at the end of the pencil.
7. Adjust the end of the pin so that the pinwheel can spin, then bend the pin back with pliers.
