Policies and procedures for the provision of services and about the employment of Staff: Internal policies relating to the delivery of services Decision making The Council makes all decisions on major items of expenditure of time, resources and money. The Staff are then relied upon to implement these policies in accordance set out particularly in Council minutes. Equality and diversity policy The Council strives to treat all members of society equally. The following areas are always considered when the public comes into contact with the Council. Age, disability, gender, sexual	Website Website and/or Hard copy Website and/or Hard copy orientation, race and ethnicity, religion or belief, human rights and carers. The Council offices are arranged to admit members of society with various physical problems e.g. wheelchair access, ramps, etc. All posts with the Council are advertised universally and all applications received are assessed on their merits without regards to any particular physical, mental problems etc. and there is equality between the sexes when appointments are being made by the Council.

The flexibility of working hours and practices are treated fairly by the Council. In particular, the age discrimination is taken into account by the Council with the Staff currently employed. The Council believes that all practices do cover the requirements of the human rights legislation.

Health and Safety Policy

This is set out in a booklet, which all Staff have seen and is kept up to date.

Recruitment policies (including current vacancies)

A Council decision is required to deal with current vacancies. The Staffing sub-Committee will also be involved in decisions regarding the job specification, person specification, salary, hours to be worked, objectives of the post etc. These will be conveyed to applicants. The sub-Committee is usually formed to interview applicants and make recommendations to the Staffing sub which in turn reports to the Finance Committee which in turn reports to the Council for approval for action.
