The new Activity Drop in for older isolated / disabled people in North Sheffield, is now into its second month, and already numbers are increasing rapidly.

The most recent session, on Monday 18th October, involved 15 participants, 2 carers and 7 volunteers.

The weekly session, set up by DSY, with funding from Sheffield Burgesses Trust, and Ecclesfield Parish Council, provides physical and social activities aimed at people who are isolated/ lonely. Activities include Boccia, Board Games, Cards, Bingo, Chair based Exercise, and Seated Volleyball.

Projects Officer, Fiona Hall said:

“It’s a lovely atmosphere of laughter and friendship. People are just glad to be back out in the community, meeting people again, and it’s a real “feel good” part of the week for all of us.”

The session runs every Monday 1pm – 2.30pm at St Mark’s Church Hall, Grenoside.
